

◆ Polygraph examination

The essence of polygraph examinations is to use the polygraph to record physiological reaction curves such as breath, pulse and skin electricity of the persons who are examined, and then according to the polygraph recordings examiners who has been professionally trained determine whether the examinees tell a lie or not.

The standard operation procedure of polygraph examinations of MJIB (Investigation Bureau, Ministry of Justice, R. O. C.) pursues in accordance with APA (American Polygraph Association) Standard of Practice. It is the position of the APA that a polygraph examination has a high degree of accuracy in detecting truthfulness or deception. Part faculty of polygraph examiners in MJIB achieves the supreme grade membership of APA (American Polygraph Association). The application of the technology of polygraph examination is to judge whether the suspect's statement is true. It will help the promotion and protection of human rights.

Professional polygraph examination laboratory in MJIB

Instrument:LX4000 Polygraph System, Lafayette, USA.

During a polygraph examination, the LX4000 computer polygraph system records, stores and analyzes physiological changes of examinee.